

CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ANNAPOLIS

RESOLUTION NO. R-8-04

Introduced by Alderman Cordle

A RESOLUTION concerning

Penalties for Serving Alcohol to Underaged Person

FOR the purpose of establishing in the Fines Resolution, the penalties for serving alcohol to persons under 21 years of age; and all matters relating to said penalty.

WHEREAS, in 2003, the General Assembly amended Article 2B, Section 12-108 to permit the City of Annapolis to establish by ordinance that a violation for selling or serving alcohol to a minor is a municipal infraction rather than a misdemeanor,

WHEREAS, Ordinance O-17-04 amended the City Code to define that selling or serving alcohol to a person under 21 years of age is a municipal infraction rather than a misdemeanor.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE ANNAPOLIS CITY COUNCIL that the following new line is inserted in the R-3-04, Fines Schedule, to specify the new penalties for selling or serving alcohol to persons under 21 years of age.

7.12.370	Minor– Sale or providing to.	Suspension of license or fine not to exceed $1,000	Suspension of license or fine not to exceed $1,000
